The background of the right-hand panel is a photograph of the Griffith Aboriginal Medical Service building. The building is a modern, single-story structure with a light-colored facade and large glass windows. A paved walkway leads to the entrance, and there are some plants and a sign in the foreground. The sky is clear and blue.

Griffith Aboriginal Medical Service Dental Services

Dental Services

The Griffith AMS has acquired the services of a Dentist who works four days a week, Monday - Thursday from 8am - 4pm.

The Dental Service is open to all clients, though if you are Non-Indigenous there will be a fee unless you have an emergency dental/child benefit voucher.

Dental procedures include:

- Scale & clean
- General restorative work
 - Tooth extractions
- Denture moulding & shaping
 - Anterior root canals
 - Crowns
- Home bleaching

Booking Dental Appointments

Aboriginal clients of the AMS will need to book in to have a health check first & then Reception will book you for a dental appointment upon completion.

For Aboriginal people who don't use the Griffith AMS you need to bring in proof of Aboriginality and book in to have a health check here at GAMS which will make you eligible for 9 months worth of free appointments with the Dentist.

Non-Indigenous clients can book straight in the first consult appointment will be around $140. This is just a basic first appointment, we could possibly do work on the first appointment but there will be additional costs which we will discuss with you.
