

Bringing Them Home

The Griffith Aboriginal Medical Service offers a Bringing Them Home (BTH) Program that is funded by the National Indigenous Australians Agency.

The BTH Program is aimed to assist members from the Stolen Generations, their families and their descendants.

The BTH worker offers a holistic approach, ensuring your emotional, social, physical, psychological and cultural needs are supported to help in the healing process.

The BTH Program outreaches and services the Griffith, Darlington Point, Leeton, Narrandera, Lake Cargelligo, Murrin Bridge, Hillston and Hay areas.

For further information or to make an appointment please contact Steve Collins on 6962 0000.

